

CALIFORNIA COLLEGE
AFFORDABILITY SUMMIT

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Award-winning documentarian, journalist, and author whose documentary Hungry to Learn highlights the food insecurity challenges many students face.

ABOUT THE EVENT

The Annual California College Affordability Summit will provide K-12 and postsecondary educators and community-based organizations with information and resources on the importance of financial aid and its ability to increase college access, enrollment, and persistence.

When:

November 7th - 8th, 2023

Pre-Summit: November 7, 2023

1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Summit: November 8, 2023

8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Audience:

K-12, Higher Ed, and Community-Based Organizations

Cost: $150 per person

Location:

Riverside Convention Center
3637 5th Street,
Riverside, CA 92501

SESSION TOPICS INCLUDE

- Understanding the Better FAFSA and Better California Dream Act Application (CADAA)
- Latest Updates from Higher Education Segment Offices:
 - University of California
 - California State University
 - California Community Colleges
 - Independent California Colleges and Universities
- Supporting Undocumented Students
- Engaging the Community in the Financial Aid Process
- Ensuring Basic Needs for Students in Higher Education
- Best Practices for Increasing FAFSA/CADAA Completion rates

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER
or visit castudentaid.org/Summit2023

